The historic Canal du Midi winds its way from Toulouse to the Mediterranean port of Sète, flowing through traditional French villages and an avenue of thousands of plane trees.

Cordes-sur-Ciel

Experience the 13th-century fortified village of Cordes-sur-Ciel, recently renamed for the low-lying clouds that hang in the surrounding Cérou Valley, making this jolie hilltop commune appear to float above the sky, or sur ciel. It is said to be the first ville bastide (fortified city) ever built, intended to protect its inhabitants from the siege of the Cathars, and is also believed to be the most picturesque village in all of France. Its attractive Gothic-style architecture and the sculpted, decorative façades of merchants' houses still stand today as evidence of the wealth from the leather and cloth trades that flourished here in the 14th century.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: In nearby Noailles, enjoy a private tasting of local wines cultivated in the verdant vineyards of a family-owned estate.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the tour participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased interstate or international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increases.

Sections 1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc.
